

Robert Genetti

Translating problems into structured analysis

San Jose, CA 95125
(669) 291-5278

robertkgenetti@gmail.com

CAREER OBJECTIVE

I am seeking to expand my skills, knowledge, and experience in a junior role. I am eager to learn new concepts, ideas, theories, and processes. I am a highly motivated self-starter and team player.

EDUCATION

SJSU, San Jose, CA — Master's degree in Applied Economics

Jan 2017 - Dec 2020

Graduate level courses: Law and Economics, Programming Concepts for Social Science, Econometrics, Industrial Organization, Monetary Theory.

WORK HISTORY

Technician, Santa Clara, CA — Kelly Services

Spring 2021 - 2022

- Collaborate with team members to ensure safety and security requirements are followed.
- Perform basic monitoring and operation of equipment within the cleanroom environment.
- Document issues found and troubleshooting for follow up as needed.

STUDENT PROJECTS

Public Pensions Project — Case study and Visualization

Fall 2022

- Extract, process, and analyze data from an online source to identify patterns and trends.
- Conduct exploratory data analysis to answer questions that help inform decision-making.
- Demonstrate success in driving insights using data analysis and visualization tools.

SKILLS

Proficiency in Excel, SQL, Python, Dart, R, Tableau
Excellent data modeling
Strong quantitative analysis

ABILITIES

Troubleshooting systems and equipment
Experience in Linux, PostgreSQL, Docker
Experience in code version management solutions

ACHIEVEMENTS

Advancement of Austrian Economics awarded by the Joe Fuhrig Fund

INTERESTS

Data Analysis
Visualization Tools
Economic Principles
Statistical Modeling

LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/robert-genetti-0ab34533/>

Portfolio: <https://robertgenetti.github.io/>